1. SITUATION

Who are we? What has happened?

We finally figured out where and by whom all the supplies were coming from. A Chinese general with connections to Chinese arms production was supplying the previous rebels and the pirate organization before that. The PRC government claims to have no connection to the island where all the weapon shipments were coming from but satellite data indicates lots of cargo movement from the Chinese mainland here.

We now know of weapons manufacture and logistics on the island. The General in question Zhong Lu is also on the island as of right now.

After securing a landing post our QRF sent a recon unit into one of the production facilities which captured several local workers with potential intel about their operations on the island. They are about to be engaged by hostile PMC forces.
