1. SITUATION

Who are we? What has happened?

Since the conflict in Syria ended in █████ with the defeat of the █████, the Syrian Government has doubled down on its dictatorship regime and expanded its military. Utilizing the income from the mining of its natural resources, they purchased a fair amount of █████ equipment, which increased their fighting capabilities massively. Furthermore, they also acquired █████ intercontinental Cruise missiles which have the capability to hit █████ target in Europe and even US territory.

Therefore, a preventive strike has been ordered with the goal of destroying the Syrian Military and eliminating President █████ and all high-ranking Military █████.

You are part of the █████, █████, tasked with deploying to northern Region of █████ and with crippling the enemy's █████.
