1. SITUATION

Who are we? What has happened?

Over the last years there has been constant unrest in the northern Regions of Kazakhstan. Several Oppositional Parties have been trying to split the North off from the rest of the Country in an attempt to form an independent state. Those efforts have covertly been supported by the CIA, in order to destabilize the Kazakhstan.

About a Month ago, the entire Situation escalated and one of the Opposition Leaders, Manuel Noriega, staged a military coup, pushing himself to power and establishing a cruel military Dictatorship in the North of the country.

His militia Raided several Military Outposts, Weapons Stashes and Vehicle Depots, arming themselves with whatever they could find. One of those Outposts was a former British Observation Post, who's personal was immediately evacuated as the Coup kicked off. Unluckily, all equipment had to be left behind, including some Armored fighting Vehicles and Modern Air Assets.

To make the Situation even worse, a CIA Agent, Kurt Muse, has been captured as he was trying to leave the Region. The CIA is more than worried about their actions in Kazakhstan becoming public, therefor they reached out to the British Ministry of Defence in order to coordinate a combined Operation to recover Kurt Muse and the stolen Military Assets.

You are part of the 23 Special Air Service Regiment, Last Resort Company, tasked with deploying to North Kazakhstan to solve the Situation.
