1. SITUATION

Who are we? What has happened?

We are LRG special forces. While on a relocation flight the pilots strayed over hostile Altis and we got shot down. Fortunately, everyone is OK but our personal weapons were all lost during the crash. This is a bad situation but we will turn it into an opportunity. We have managed to contact Command and have received some intel that will make our escape possible, whilst simultaneously hurting the enemy. Details to follow;

2. MISSION

What are we going to do about it?
