• SITUATION

Who are we? What has happened?

We are LRG, a small-scale military contractor on a contract for the government of Finland.

Current regional tensions are on the rise between Finland and Russia due to their unfortunate proximity to each other. Our reason for being here is a sudden growth of terrorist activities that plague the region of Virolahti, which Russia is seeking to use as a reason to invade Finland under the guise of "Providing Stability" to the region.

This has tied up the hands of the Finnish government as any military activity near the border will seem as an aggressive move. leaving them to resort to hiring a third party to assist. which is where we come in.

We are here to quell the terrorist cell and remove russia's ability to use that as a bargaining chip. and hopefully prevent a full scale invasion.
