• SITUATION

Who are we? What has happened?

We are Eleventh Hour Contractors. A small scale PMC on a contract with NATO, We have been called to investigate a military disturbance in the Atlantic.

In the recent months satellite imagery has revealed a sudden appearance of military units on the remote island of Sahreno. With no country claiming responsibility it's been suspected to be sea pirates or something of the like, we have been called in to determine the enemy, who have been verified as members of the army of the Republic of the Congo.

This was confirmed when a US Frigate was attacked by anti ship missiles off the coast of Sahreno, the Frigate was under towed transport due to a powerplant failure, leaving it undefended and sunk. major US naval officers were taken from the wreckage and are under suspected interrogation. We are here to retrieve those hostages and destroy any gathered intel. All enemy combatants are to be killed, no witnesses.

• MISSION

What are we going to do about it?

- Recover the US Sailors.
- Destroy any information gathered from the Hostages.
