1. SITUATION

Who are we? What has happened?

We are the зеленые акулы an elite military squad handpicked by our glorious president Vladimir Putin. We are currently being deployed to a remote part of Chernarus after the failed invasion of Chechnya has caused their leader Ramzan Akhmadovich Kadyrov to flee to Chernarus for protection by the US. Our mission is to get to him and his forces before he can get in US hands. President Putin has also given us clearance to wipe out all civilians that have hosted the Chechens. Since our presence is not known by the outside world, absolute secrecy is important, any and all people that see us have to be liquidated. Intel also suggests that all civilians have been moved by the Chechens to the towns of Chernob, Electro, Balota and Pusta, in addition to this there is a small garrison of Chechens held up in Zelenogorsk

2. MISSION

What are we going to do about it?
