1. SITUATION

Who are we? What has happened?

The Royal Dutch army has send part of the 43th Mechanized brigade to the Island of Bewah. To help the Indonesian Army get familiar with some Surplus material they bought from the Dutch and train together with the Dutch Army.
For the trade deal the Dutch minister of trade "Jaap Janssen" and Battalion commander "Cor Nijs" are staying in the Tepi Pantai Resort.

Last night a coop is committed by the Indonesian forces towards the government on the island. They took over all controlled bases, power stations and moved in to the Resort.
Contact with the ministers and the Battalion commander is lost.

We know that the Rebelling forces have control over heavy weapons including but not limiting to:
Ex-Soviet MBT's
Ex-Soviet APC's
2S6M Armored Anti-Air Systems
Scud Missile Systems
Ex-Soviet Planes/Helicopters

2. MISSION

What are we going to do about it?

Mission Critical:

Rescue The minister of trade Jaap Janssen and Battalion Commander Cor Nijs

Secondary:

Reclaim Control of the Power (Power Plant and Power Station)

Find intel on the location and Destroy all Stud Systems

3. RESOURCES

What equipment do we have?

Multiple Bushmaster Variants	AH-64H
Support Trucks	2x CH-47F Cargo
Leopard 2A6 MBT	1x UH-60 Medivac
PanzerHaubitze 2000 (150mm Arti)	2x F16-C
M113 Ambulances	C-130J Transport

4. LIMITATIONS

What can't we do?

Do not harm civilians, don't create unnecessary damage to property

Only use appropriate force

Non-Army Rebels might have already joined the Enemy troops, stay vigilant but stick to the R-A-M-P. Rules of Engagement

R-A-M-P

R - Return Fire with Aimed Fire.

Return force with force. You always have the right to repel hostile acts with necessary force.

A - Anticipate Attack. Use force if, but only if, you see clear indicators of hostile intent.

M - Measure the amount of Force that you use, if time and circumstances permit. Use only the amount of force necessary to protect lives and accomplish the mission.

P - Protect with deadly force only human life, and property designated by your commander. Stop short of deadly force when protecting other property.

Jaap Janssen
