1. SITUATION

Who are we? What has happened?

The Helmand province campaign was a series of military operations conducted by the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) forces against Taliban insurgents and other local groups in the Helmand Province of Afghanistan. Their objective was to control a province that was known to be a Taliban stronghold, and a center of opium production.

The deployment of British forces was part of the stage three expansion of the ISAF mandate, to cover the southern regions of Afghanistan. Until then Helmand province had seen only a limited coalition presence.

You are the Royal Marine Commando unit LRG, part of ISAF.

Together with the Afghan National Army, you are tasked to control the region.

Due to presents of ISAF forces, the Afghan police stopped activity at the Opium Factory. Our informant told us that some corrupt police officers are keeping it running for their own profit
