Who are we? What has happened?

The Royal Dutch army has sent part of the 43th Mechanized brigade to the Island of Bewah. To help the Indonesian Army get familiar with some Surplus material they bought from the Dutch and train together with the Dutch Army.

Two days ago, a coup is committed by the Indonesian forces towards the government on the island. The 43th Brig managed to rescue the captured minister of trade and the company commander. Local rebels have spread the news that the Dutch are only here for their own profit, killing innocent civilians and bombing villages as they like.

The Indonesian General Nur Boon said during a press conference that the Dutch Army is here to recolonize the island.

Last night the police station and armory got over run by rebels, more civilians are armed and might act hostile.

The Indonesian Government has requested help towards the UN council, with the request towards the Dutch Government to help re-establish peace on the Island of Bewah.
