1. SITUATION

Who are we? What has happened?

We are the last loyal platoon in the country following a military coup. The three previous heads of government, the El Heffe brothers, have been overthrown and have been sentenced to death. Antonito, the oldest brother, has managed to evade capture and make their way to us but the other two need to be rescued.

Our objective is to rescue and then escort all VIPs to the airport in the west of the islands, as our helicopters lack the range needed. To do this we need to clear the way of AA positions and prevent enemy aircraft from following us. Some payback would be in order as well. Death to all traitors!

Details to follow in this document.
